Was Made Special Order for Saturday, but Was Not Acted Upon in House.

Austin, Ter., May 8.—Gov. Ferguson's 1,000,000 county school bill will have to walt until next week for action in the house. The bill had been made a special order for 10:30 this morning. It was reached and laid before the house of consideration, but the house adjusted before any action was taken it probably will be one of the first bills considered on Monday.

Gibson Hill Emmiss Score. The opponents to the Gibson insurance bill in the bouse won the first skirmish of that measure today, when representative McAnkill, one of the nithors of the Gibson bill, moved to have the bill and all proposed amendments pending before the committee on insurance printed in the journal and 200 extra copies of the journal be printed and laid on the deske of the mæmberz. Representative Tillotson then offered in amendment is all in any color the sill and a speciment. nd ind on the desks of the members Representative Tillotson then offered a amendment that only the bill as in-reduced in the house be printed in the ournal. He was opposed to the print-ng of the amendments. Representa-tive Grindstaff, another author of the till, moved to table the Tillotson mandment, but this falled by a vote of $ 10 65.
